

Media support services – Ukraine Crisis

The need for accurate reporting from Ukraine has never been higher.

The safety, security and wellbeing of the brave journalists and media teams – local and international, staff and freelancers is essential.

Here are just some of the ways we can support you...

Operational support on the ground

AKE has enabled and kept media crews and freelancers safe and secure in every conflict since 2001.

From your planning to your on-the-ground safety, we are here to support you with:

- Pre-deployment risk assessment
- In country security, medical & logistical support
- Tracking of your personnel
- 24/7 crisis response line
- Evacuation and repatriation

You can utilise our services via retained, project based or ad-hoc arrangements. Find out more.

Fast access & rolling HEAT courses

We have a few places left on our Fast Access HEAT course at our Centre of Training Excellence in Herefordshire on 14 –18 March.

For more information and to book, click here.

This course will include a Ukraine specific briefing and Q&A opportunity with AKE's Europe & Eurasia desk.

- Special rates for freelance journalists
- Refresher course available

Our HEAT and HEAT refreshers will be running continuously to ensure access to training is available when you need it.

Intelligence & analysis

Our Ukraine Daily Security Update report follows a format that we know works for and delivers value to our clients. A weekly subscription is just £60.

Check out a sample report here and subscribe here.

We will be compiling this update daily until further notice and have set up an easy weekly subscription that can be cancelled at any time.

We can also support with your pre-deployment planning.

From short Risk Briefs to full Risk Assessments, telephone and video call consultancy, get in touch to learn more.

HEAT courses in Poland

We're finalising the dates and logistics for our upcoming Hostile Environments Awareness Training (HEAT) courses in Poland.

We're working to make it easier for local journalists, Ukrainian journalists, and media teams en-route to Ukraine – to access this valuable training.

Register your interest here and as soon as details are finalised we'll share them with you.
